

I think it necessary to have rules in place that serve the public, rather than simply forwarding the private interest. I wholeheartedly oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. It is further corporatization and homogenization of America. I beg you to retain the current ownership rules.